REF
f
Z
7817
N420s
1960:2

FOR REFERENCE

NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM THIS ROOM

NEW YORK (CITY)

Selected List

CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS

(Items Published in 1957, 1958, 1959, and 1960)

Added to the Collection of

THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY

Between July 1, 1960 and December 31, 1960

MOLBROOK LIBRARY
PACIFIC SCHOOL
OF RELIGION

Selected List Series No. 16

Missionary Research Library
3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York
1961

68534

f
Z
7817
N420s
1960:2
Ref

New York (city) Missionary research library

OLBROOK LIBRARY
PACIFIC SCHOOL OF RELIGION

FOREWORD

The SELECTED LIST OF CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS is published twice a year by the Missionary Research Library. The present issue contains accessions from July through December, 1960. With but few exceptions only titles published since the beginning of 1957 are listed. The more important pamphlets are given a place, and a few selected government documents. Periodicals and reports of organizations are excluded.

Books in the MRL SELECTED LIST may be borrowed, directly or through inter-library loan, if not available in a nearby library. However, books cannot be sent overseas. The Missionary Research Library does not act as agent for purchasing books. Orders should be sent to the publishers or through book agencies. In the case of foreign publications, the price is given in the currency of the country of publication whenever this information is readily available. Prices listed for United Nations publications are United States prices, since these items may be obtained at the International Documents Service of Columbia University Press in New York City. Friendship Press is the agent for Edinburgh House and the World Dominion Press. Any book agent or large library can indicate where foreign books may be ordered in this country. The addresses of publishers may be obtained by consulting the Cumulative Book Index (C. B. I.) or any book agency.

The Library of the Union Theological Seminary, adjoining the Missionary Research Library, acquires many other books in the field of religions, which are available to readers at the Missionary Research Library.

The staff of the Missionary Research Library cooperates in the selection of books for the Library and in the preparation of book annotations. The special fields and interests of the Missionary Research Library determine the choice of books: the theory, history and methods of Christian missions, and world-wide Christianity; non-Christian religions; studies of areas, countries, peoples and cultures; anthropology and ethnology; international affairs and world peace. We would appreciate suggestions of significant books which have been omitted in our selection.

The following have been especially helpful in the preparation of this SELECTED LIST: Mr. Jaymes P. Morgan, Mr. Ralph M. Moore, Miss Barbara Griffis, Mrs. Laura Person, and Mrs. Alice Wong.

February, 1961

Frank W. Price
Director

Additional copies of this SELECTED LIST and of previous semi-annual and annual SELECTED LISTS may be purchased at fifty cents each. Payment with order is appreciated.

MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY
3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York
1960

Price Fifty Cents

FOREWORD

The SELECTED LIST OF CURRENT BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS is published twice a year by the Missionary Research Library. The present issue contains accessions from July through December, 1960. With but few exceptions only titles published since the beginning of 1957 are listed. The more important pamphlets are given a place, and a few selected government documents. Periodicals and reports of organizations are excluded.

Books in the MRL SELECTED LIST may be borrowed, directly or through interlibrary loan, if not available in a nearby library. However, books cannot be sent overseas. The Missionary Research Library does not act as agent for purchasing books. Orders should be sent to the publishers or through book agencies. In the case of foreign publications, the price is given in the currency of the country of publication whenever this information is readily available. Prices listed for United Nations publications are United States prices, since these items may be obtained at the International Documents Service of Columbia University Press in New York City. Friendship Press is the agent for Edinburgh House and the World Dominion Press. Any book agent or large library can indicate where foreign books may be ordered in this country. The addresses of publishers may be obtained by consulting the Cumulative Book Index (C. B. I.) or any book agency.

The Library of the Union Theological Seminary, adjoining the Missionary Research Library, acquires many other books in the field of religions, which are available to readers at the Missionary Research Library.

The staff of the Missionary Research Library cooperates in the selection of books for the Library and in the preparation of book annotations. The special fields and interests of the Missionary Research Library determine the choice of books: the theory, history and methods of Christian missions, and world-wide Christianity; non-Christian religions; studies of areas, countries, peoples and cultures; anthropology and ethnology; international affairs and world peace. We would appreciate suggestions of significant books which have been omitted in our selection.

The following have been especially helpful in the preparation of this SELECTED LIST: Mr. Jaymes P. Morgan, Mr. Ralph M. Moore, Miss Barbara Griffis, Mrs. Laura Person, and Mrs. Alice Work.

February, 1961

Frank W. Price
Director

Additional copies of this SELECTED LIST and of previous semi-annual and annual SELECTED LISTS may be purchased at fifty cents each. Payment with order is appreciated.

MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY
3041 Broadway
New York 27, New York
1960

Price Fifty Cents

C O N T E N T S

I. HISTORY
- A. History of Missions 1
- B. History of Missionary Societies 1
- C. Church History 2
- D. Ecumenical Movement; Church Union and Cooperation 2
- E. Roman Catholic Missions 3

II. BIOGRAPHY
- A. Missionaries 4
- B. National Christians 5
- C. General 5

III. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS; THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS 5

IV. MISSIONARY METHODS
- A. Evangelism and Church Work; Communication of the Gospel 7
- B. Christian Education 8
- C. Christian Literature and Literacy Education 8
- D. Audio-Visual Communications 8
- E. Medical Missions 8
- F. Rural and Agricultural Missions 9
- G. General Description of Missionary Activities 9
- H. Administration and Promotion of Missions: Training of Missionary Personnel 9
- I. Other Methods and Problems 9

V. REFERENCE
- A. Missions 9
- B. Yearbooks and Directories 9
- C. Bibliographies and General 10

VI. AREAS AND COUNTRIES: (1) GENERAL (2) MISSIONS, CHURCHES
- A. North America 10
- B. The Caribbean Islands and the Guianas 11
- C. Latin America 11
- D. Europe 12
- E. Africa (South of the Sahara) 13
- F. Near East, Middle East, and North Africa 17
- G. Central Asia 19
- H. Southern Asia 19
- I. South East Asia 21
- J. East Asia 23
- K. Pacific Islands 26
- L. Australia and New Zealand 26
- M. General 26

VII. CHRISTIANITY AND NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES
- A. Religions of Primitive Paoples 26
- B. The Great Non-Christian Religions 26
- C. Judaism 28
- D. Communism 28
- E. General and Other Religions 29

CONTENTS

I. HISTORY
A. History of Missions 1
B. History of Missionary Societies 1
C. Church History 2
D. Ecumenical Movement; Church Union and Cooperation 2
E. Roman Catholic Missions 3

II. BIOGRAPHY
A. Missionaries 4
B. National Christians 5
C. General 5

III. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS; THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS 5

IV. MISSIONARY METHODS
A. Evangelism and Church Work; Communication of the Gospel 7
B. Christian Education 8
C. Christian Literature and Literacy Education 8
D. Audio-Visual Communications 8
E. Medical Missions 9
F. Rural and Agricultural Missions 9
G. General Description of Missionary Activities
H. Administration and Promotion of Missions; Training of Missionary Personnel 9
I. Other Methods and Problems 9

V. REFERENCE
A. Missions 9
B. Yearbooks and Directories 9
C. Bibliographies and General 10

VI. AREAS AND COUNTRIES; (1) GENERAL (2) MISSIONS, CHURCHES
A. North America 10
B. The Caribbean Islands and the Guianas 11
C. Latin America 11
D. Europe 12
E. Africa (South of the Sahara) 13
F. Near East, Middle East, and North Africa 17
G. Central Asia 19
H. Southern Asia 19
I. South East Asia 21
J. East Asia 23
K. Pacific Islands 26
L. Australia and New Zealand 26
M. General 26

VII. CHRISTIANITY AND NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES
A. Religions of Primitive Peoples 26
B. The Great Non-Christian Religions 26
C. Judaism 28
D. Communism 28
E. General and Other Religions 29

VIII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE 29

IX. ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS 32

X. THEOLOGICAL, WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL 33

XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY 34

VIII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE 29
IX. ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS 32
X. THEOLOGICAL, WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL 33
XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY 34

I. HISTORY

A. HISTORY OF MISSIONS

See: 41, 44, 45

B. HISTORY OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

1. Barlow, Sanna Morrison.
Arrows of His Bow. Chicago: Moody Press, 1960. 208 p. $3.50 A chatty review of the work of Gospel Recordings, a missionary enterprise dedicated to the dissemination of the evangelistic message through recordings in native languages, as seen in the labors of an individual missionary.

2. Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society.
Give Us This Mountain; The Story of the Ten Beginning Years with the Conservative Baptist Mission and Missionaries in the Tohoku of Japan, 1947-1957. Wheaton, Illinois: Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society, 1959. 99 p. (Mimeographed) $1.90 Sketch of the work of the Japan Conservative Baptist Mission and its 53 missionaries during the first decade (1947-1957) - pioneering efforts, medical and evangelistic work, literary production, and the struggle for theological orthodoxy.

3. Engebretsens, Rolf.
India og misjonen idag. Copenhagen: Ejnar Munksgaard, 1952. Da.Kr. 2.10 "India and Missions Today." The work of the Norwegian Pentecostal Mission in different centers. Profusely illustrated.

4. Griffiths, A. F.
Africa. London: London Missionary Society, 1959. 40 p. (L.M.S. Field Books No. 1) 2/6 A brief resumé of the work of the London Missionary Society in the Union of South Africa, Bechuanaland and the Rhodesias, carried on by 62 missionaries and many African colleagues.

5. Hewat, Elizabeth G. K.
Vision and Achievement, 1796-1956; a History of the Foreign Missions of the Churches United in the Church of Scotland. London: Thomas Nelson, 1960. 308 p. 25/- The author, Professor of History at Wilson College, Bombay, for twenty years, outlines this study of Church of Scotland missions according to the various fields. Detailed, yet highly readable; useful bibliographies appended to each chapter.

6. Jackson, H. C.
Pastor of the Nile; Being Some Account of the Life and Letters of Llewellyn H. Gwynne... formerly Bishop in Egypt and the Sudan and Deputy Chaplain-General in France in the First World War. London: S.P.C.K., 1960. 270 p. 16/6 Based on private letters, diaries, and magazine articles, the story of a "vivid and magnetic personality" who affected profoundly the Christian communities of Egypt and the Sudan.

7. Nicklasson, Gösta.
Sett och Hört i Japan. Stockholm: Missionsförbundets Förlag, 1959. "Seen and heard in Japan." By the Missionary Secretary of the Covenant Church of Sweden. Describes the work of eight Swedish missions which have been started since World War II. Deputation trip, problems of the churches, conversations with various leaders.

See also: 69, 148

I. HISTORY

A. HISTORY OF MISSIONS

2. HISTORY OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

C. CHURCH HISTORY

8. Anson, Peter F.
A Monastery in Moray; The Story of Pluscarden Priory, 1230-1948. London: S.P.C.K., 1959. 211 p. $6.00 A detailed and interesting account of the life of a Roman Catholic priory, by the author of The Call of the Cloister. The attempt to portray this story as a microcosm of the history of Scotland is marred somewhat by the compression of the last three and one-half centuries of the story into thirty pages of text.

9. Brown, William Eric. (ed. by Michael Derrick).
The Catholic Church in South Africa from Its Origins to the Present Day. London: Burns & Oates, 1960. 384 p. 35/- A pioneer work: the first history to appear of the Roman Catholic Church in South and South West Africa from 1837 to 1922, and a prologue bringing the story to the present time. The attitude of the Church toward apartheid is made clear. Critical of Protestant missions.

10. Iswolsky, Helene.
Christ in Russia. Milwaukee: Bruce Publishing Company, 1960. 213 p. $3.95 A moving history of the Church in Russia from 988 A.D. to the present, with very brief reference to the Communist period. The author, a Russian convert to Roman Catholicism, emphasizes the personal and mystical soul of Orthodoxy, the richness of its liturgy, and its place in Russia's life today and tomorrow.

11. Kibira, Josiah.
Aus einer afrikanischen Kirche. Bethel bei Bielefeld: Verlagshandlung der Anstalt Bethel, 1960. 72 p. DM.2.95 The story of the Evangelical Church of Bahaya, Uganda, and of its dynamic younger African leaders.

12. Rawlinson, A. E. J.
The Anglican Communion in Christendom. London: S.P.C.K., 1960. 134 p. 6/6 Brief historical sketch of the "Ecclesia Anglicana" which has developed into a world-wide Christian communion, from the 13th century to the present time. Story of the Lambeth Conferences, theological considerations, church reunion schemes, and the possibility of a greater Eastern Church.

See also: 84

D. ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT; CHURCH UNION AND COOPERATION

13. In the Unity of the Faith; Twenty-seven Sermons and Meditations. Philadelphia: The Christian Education Press, 1960. 187 p. $3.00 Sermons by 27 church officials and executives of as many different denominations, including some laymen and laywomen, all striking the ecumenical note. Foreword by Edwin T. Dahlberg, President of the National Council of Churches.

14. Leeming, Bernard, S.J.
The Churches and the Church; A Study of Ecumenism. London: Darton, Longman & Todd; Westminster, Md.: The Newman Press, 1960. 340 p. 35/- A Roman Catholic scholar at Heythrop College presents this comprehensive and generally fair survey of Protestant ecumenical developments and the Catholic attitude toward them. Of special importance in view of the impending General Council called by Pope John XXIII.

15. Pickhard, Elsie C. and Shotwell, Louisa R., ed.
Every Tribe and Tongue. New York: Friendship Press, 1960. 127 p. $1.00 "Reflections from the Joint Assembly, Division of Home Missions, Division of Foreign Missions, NCCC-USA," held in Atlantic City, December 8-11, 1959.

[illegible]

[illegible] by the author of [illegible]. The [illegible] to portray this story as a microcosm of the history of Scotland in mat by the compression of the last three and one-half centuries of the into thirty pages of text.

[illegible], William Ewart. (ed. by Michael Perkin).
[illegible]: Burns & Oates, 1960. 384 p. 35/- A pioneer work: the first major

1902, and a prologue bringing the story to the present time. The structure of the Church toward apostasy is made clear. Critical of Protestant writers.

[illegible]
[illegible]sal in Russia. Milwaukee: Bruce Publishing Company, 1960. 215 p. $3.95
[illegible]oving history of the Church in Russia from 988 A.D. to the present. Fair work

[illegible]Christianism, emphasizes the personal and mystical [illegible]cent of Orthodoxy, the rich-[illegible]s of its liturgy, and its place in Russia's life today and tomorrow.

[illegible], Joelah.
[illegible]ener erfahrungen. Bethel bei Bielefeld: Verlagsbuchhandlung [illegible]
[illegible]t Bethel, 1960. 72 p. DM.2.95 The story of the evangelical Church of [illegible], Uganda, and of its dynamic young African leaders.

[illegible]
[illegible]ican Communion in Christendom. London: S.P.C.K., 1960. 124 p. 6/6
[illegible]' historical sketch of the "Ecclesia Anglicana" which has developed into a [illegible]e Christian communion, from the 17th century to the present time.
[illegible]s of the Lambeth Conferences, theological considerations, church re-[illegible], and the possibility of a greater Eastern Church.

D. ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT; CHURCH UNION AND COOPERATION

[illegible]e Unity of the Faith; Twenty-seven Sermons and Meditations. Philadelphia: [illegible]rietan Education Press, 1960. 187 p. $3.00 Sermons by 27 women of-[illegible] and executives of as many different denominations, including five Negro [illegible], all stressing the ecumenical note. Foreword by Fisher, T. Buttrick, [illegible]t of the National Council of Churches.

[illegible], [illegible]
[illegible]urches and the Church: A Study of Communism. London: Darton, Longman & [illegible]; Westminster, Md.: The Newman Press, 1960. 240 p. 25/- A Roman Catholic [illegible]or at Heythrop College presents this comprehensive and generally fair exa-[illegible] of Protestant communions, developments and the Catholic attitude toward them. [illegible] special information in view of the impending XX General Council called by Pope [illegible]n XXIII.

[illegible]rd, Elsie C. and Shotwell, Louise R., ed.
[illegible]

Selections from outstanding speeches and discussions. A well-prepared book, important for all who serve or plan in the Christian missionary enterprise.

16. Robinson, John A. T.
On Being the Church in the World. London: SCM Press, 1960. 158 p. 16/-
The forceful Bishop of Woolwich presents fifteen essays on biblical theology, that grapple with questions of faith, order, and polity in the light of his hopes for church unity. "The Gospel and Race" is an outstanding chapter.

17. Routley, Erik.
Ecumenical Hymnody. London: Independent Press, 1959. 32 p. 3/-; U.S.$.75
A thoughtful and suggestive paper on missionary and ecumenical hymns. The writer pleads for "de-specialization of ecumenical hymnody," and urges greater use of hymns that will link together the world-wide Church.

18. Slack, Kenneth.
The Ecumenical Movement. London: Edinburgh House Press, 1960. 44 p. 2/-
The General Secretary of the British Council of Churches talks simply and persuasively about the "great new fact," the ecumenical movement of our day, and the role being played by councils of churches.

19. Thompson, Betty.
Turning World. New York: Friendship Press, 1960. 128 p. $2.95 "The whole task of the whole church is to bring the gospel to the whole world." Out of extensive travels and years of experience in the ecumenical movement Miss Thompson has produced an extraordinarily lively book on the world-wide church and mission. Illustrated by splendid photographs. Related to the 1960-1961 mission study theme.

20. U Kyaw Than, ed.
"Witnesses Together," being the Official Report of the Inaugural Assembly of the East Asia Christian Conference, held at Kuala Lumpur, Malaya, May 14-24, 1959. Rangoon: East Asia Christian Conference. 179 p. $1.50 (Available in New York and London, International Missionary Council) History of events leading up to the organization of EACC, the inaugural service, constitution and organization, addresses and commission reports, messages, recommendations, list of participants from 15 countries. A significant report in the story of Asian Christianity.

21. Webster, Douglas.
Missionary Societies—One or Many? London: Highway Press, 1960. 20 p. 1/-
A defense of the several missionary societies organized within the Church of England, which have various backgrounds and emphases. By a well-known Anglican writer on missionary subjects.

E. ROMAN CATHOLIC MISSIONS

22. Burke, Thomas J. M., S.J., ed.
Sinews of Love; the Face of the World as Seen by Men of God. New York: New American Library, 1959. 159 p. $1.95 A pictorial panorama of unusual excellence, this publication presents photographs of the people and life in areas of Roman Catholic missionary labors, woven together by a text composed of excerpts from papal encyclicals on missions.

23. Catholic International Organisations; a Directory. London: Sword of the Spirit, 1959. 21 p. 1/6 Directory of more than 30 organizations.

24. Mission et cultures non-chrétiennes; rapports et compte rendu de la XXIX^{e} semaine de missiologie, Louvain 1959. Bruxelles: Desclée de Brouwer (Museum Lessianum - Section Missiologique, No. 40). Bel.fr. 160 Papers by twenty Roman Catholic scholars on the problem of Christian encounter with non-Christian faiths and culture. Report of the 29th Conference on Missiology at Louvain University.

25. Ohm, Thomas.
Das Katechumenat in den Katholischen Missionen. Münster, Westfalen: Aschendorff 1959. 122 p. DM.11.80 Thorough study by a Roman Catholic scholar of the catechumenate in Catholic missions - history, aim, theory, teaching materials and methods, emphases, and results.

26. Steyler Missions-Chronik 1959; die Gesellschaft des göttlichen Wortes (SVD) berichtet über ihr Missionswerk in aller Welt. Kaldenkirchen, West Germany: Steyler Verlagsbuchhandlung, 1959. 207 p. DM. 7.80 Pictorial survey of the missionary program of the Roman Catholic Society of the Divine Word, with special emphasis on Africa. An impressive report.

27. U. S. Catholic Overseas Missionary Personnel, January 1, 1960. Washington, D. C.: Mission Secretariat. 109 p. Statistics and other valuable information about U. S. Catholic missionary work abroad in 110 countries; directory of missionary institutes (sending societies); tables of priests, brothers and sisters, and laity; total number of foreign missionaries, 6,782.

See also: 9, 71, 74, 75, 163, 180

II. B I O G R A P H Y

A. MISSIONARIES

28. Crane, Allan.
Fierce the Conflict; the Story of Lilian Hamer. London: China Inland Mission, 1960. 80 p. $.75 Inspirational account of the service and martyrdom of Lilian Hamer, British missionary to the Lisu of North Thailand, by a fellow missionary.

29. Jensen, Iona Clark.
Adventure for God on Okinawa. Mountain View, Calif.: Pacific Press Publishing Assn., 1960. 130 p. $3.50 The cheerful experiences of a Seventh Day Adventist missionary family on Okinawa, written in the form of a novel.

30. Lawman, Tony.
From the Hands of the Wicked. London: Robert Hale, 1960. 191 p. 18/- An absorbing, detailed biography of Frederick Stanley Arnot, pioneer Scottish missionary to central Africa, based on his personal letters and diaries.

31. Means, Florence Crannell.
Sunlight on the Hopi Mesas; the Story of Abigail E. Johnson. Philadelphia: Judson Press, 1960. 171 p. $3.50, paper $2.50 Biography of a brave pioneer missionary to the Hopi Indians, Abigail E. Johnson (1872-1958). Many interesting anecdotes.

32. Reuling, Eleanor S.
First Saint to the Zulus. Boston: American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, 1960. 44 p. n.p. Brief biography of the Reverend James C. Bryant and Mrs. Bryant, early missionaries of the ABCFM to Zululand in South Africa. Although Mr. Bryant served only four years (1846-1850) he is remembered as a remarkable linguist and also as a true "saint."

33. Schapera, I., ed.
Livingstone's Private Journals, 1851-1853. London: Chatto and Windus, 1960. 341 p. 35/- Hitherto unpublished journals of David Livingstone during his two journeys to Northwestern Rhodesia, 1851-1853, revealing much interest in natural history and tribal customs, and throwing new light on the explorer's religious life. Fascinating material that fills a gap in Livingstone's biography.

34. Smart, Fay M.
Operation A uca. London: Pichering & Inglis, 1958. 84 p. 4/6 Children's version of the story of five American missionary martyrs, murdered in 1956 by the Auca Indians of South America.

35. Wall, Martha.
Splinters from an African Log. Chicago: Moody Press, 1960. 319 p. $3.75
A detailed account of twelve years in the life of a missionary nurse; intimate record of the labors of an "ordinary" missionary--both the service with the African people, and the inner struggle of the missionary heart.

See also: 77, 95, 246

B. NATIONAL CHRISTIANS

36. Appasamy, A. J.
Sundar Singh. London: Lutterworth Press, 1958. 248 p. $5.75 A well-documente and readable new biography of the controversial Indian mystic, on the basis of fresh sources of information, by a Bishop of the Church of South India.

37. Eastman, Frances W.
We Belong Together. New York: Friendship Press, 1960. 125 p. $2.50; paper $1.50 Five appealing stories about overseas Christians - in Angola, Thailand, Germany, Nepal, Korea, written especially for youth but interesting and challenging to all ages.

38. Kajerero, Andrea.
Aus meinem Leben. Bethel bei Bielefeld: Verlagshandlung der Anstalt Bethel, 1959. 80 p. DM. 2.20 Story of an outstanding African evangelist who served along with the Bethel Mission of Germany and the Church Missionary Society in the Bahaya Evangelical Church of Uganda during the past 50 years.

C. GENERAL

III. THEORY AND PRINCIPLES OF MISSIONS; THEOLOGY OF MISSIONS

39. Baird, William.
Paul's Message and Mission. New York: Abingdon Press, 1960. 176 p. $3.00
The relevance of Paul's message and far-flung ministry for the mission of the Church today. The author is professor of New Testament at the College of the Bible, Lexington, Kentucky.

40. Bavinck, J. H.
An Introduction to the Science of Missions. Philadelphia: Presbyterian and Reformed Publishing Co., 1960. 323 p. $4.95 English translation (by David Hugh Freeman) of a book originally published in Dutch, Inleiding in de Zendingswetenschap (1954). Dr. Bavinck, a great evangelical scholar of missions, grapples vigorously with the principles of missions; the Scriptural basis, aim and role of missions; and the missionary approach to non-Christians (an outstanding section). The book is destined to become a classic.

41. Glover, Robert Hall.
The Progress of World-Wide Missions. Revised and enlarged by J. Herbert Kane. New York: Harper, 1960. 502 p. $5.50 Dr. Glover's famous survey of Protestant world-wide missions, first published in 1924, has been greatly enlarged and revised. Within its prescribed limits and the conservative viewpoint on theology and missionary attitude, it provides a most comprehensive and useful textbook on western missionary work in each area and country of the world. Less emphasis on the "younger churches."

42. Graber, J. D.
The Church Apostolic; a Discussion of Modern Missions. Scottdale, Pa.: Herald Press, 1960. 137 p. $3.00 The General Secretary of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities defends the thesis that the Church must be missionary, and that the purpose of missions is to found churches by the proclamation of the Gospel in word and deed. A popular treatment.

43. Herklots, H. G. G.
The Gospel in a World of Conflict. London: Highway Press, 1960. 100 p. 2/- The changed and complex situation in which missionaries today are working, compared with fifty years ago; missionary experiences in a world of continuing conflict. Written especially for the Church Missionary Society (Anglican) but also of general interest.

44. History's Lessons for Tomorrow's Mission; Milestones in the History of Missionary Thinking. Geneva: World's Student Christian Federation, 1960. 300 p. $3.50 Thirty essays by some of the best known missionary and ecumenical scholars today on various aspects of missionary history and theory which are relevant to the modern scene. First published as a special issue of The Student World.

45. Hoffman, Ronan.
Pioneer Theories of Missiology. Washington, D. C.: Catholic University of America Press, 1960. 182 p. $3.25 An analysis of the missionary thinking of Cardinal Brancati de Laurea (1612-1693) dealing especially with the history, qualifications, and responsibilities of the missionary; and a comparison between Brancati and three contemporaries - Jose de Acosta, Thomas a Jesus, Dominicus de Gubernatis. References, bibliography, index.

46. Holsten, Walter, ed.
Neue Begegnung von Kirche und Islam. Stuttgart: Evang. Missionsverlag, 1960. 61 p. (Weltmission Heute, Heft 13/14) DM. 2.40 Conference papers by W. Freytag, Kramer, Merklin and Vicedom on the new encounter between the Christian Church and Islam. Introduction by Walter Holsten.

47. The Life and Mission of the Church; a Study Outline. Geneva: World's Student Christian Federation, 1959. 15 pamphlets. $.10 per pamphlet, or $1.00 for set of 15. Stimulating essays in which many persons have collaborated, designed for study groups, especially of students. Significant contribution to missionary theory.

the Baptists of Missouri. Philadelphia: Presbyterian Board of ...
...
...

48. Smith, Paul B.
World Conquest. London: Marshall, Morgan, & Scott, 1960. 128 p. 8/6 The principles underlying the missionary outreach of the People's Church, Toronto, in relation to the increased opportunities for world evangelism, through new vehicles of transportation and communication. Conservative evangelical viewpoint.

49. Thompson, Ernest Trice.
Tomorrow's Church - Tomorrow's World. Richmond, Va.: John Knox Press, 1960. 128 p. $1.50 The role of the Presbyterian U.S. Church in the world of tomorrow: a book written for the Centennial Year. Chapter 5 on "A World-Wide Fellowship" presents the case for and against the newer concepts of Mission. The author is professor of Church History at Union Theological Seminary, Virginia.

See also: 24, 50, 54

IV. MISSIONARY METHODS

A. EVANGELISM AND CHURCH WORK; COMMUNICATION OF THE GOSPEL

50. Allen, Roland.
The Ministry of the Spirit; Selected Writings of Roland Allen. Edited by David M. Paton. London: World Dominion Press, 1960. 208 p. 12/6 Roland Allen (1868-1947), missionary to China for ten years and then a priest in England, was a prophetic advocate of Biblical missionary principles that would promote a truly indigenous Christianity. A believer in voluntary clergy, he wrote many books and articles that have attracted increasing attention. This is a valuable collection of his writings that have been out of print. David Paton is editor; Archibald McLeish contributes a biographical sketch.

51. Babbage, Stuart Barton, and Siggins, Ian.
Light Beneath the Cross. New York: Doubleday, 1960. 161 p. $2.95 Story of Billy Graham's 1959 Crusade in Australia and New Zealand and its impact on all classes and ages, including children. The results in the churches: "We witnessed miracles."

52. Crossley, John.
Explaining the Gospel to Muslims. London: Lutterworth Press, 1960. 48 p. (Key Books No. 5) 2s. Written by a missionary to Nigeria, this booklet seeks to give answers to the most frequent and important questions Muslims ask about the Christian faith, and to present solutions for some of the everyday problems of life. Very simple style, geared to teen-age level.

53. Meyer, Majel.
Where Are the Thousand? Frederick, So. Dakota: Standard of Sion Missionary Foundation, 1960. 222 p. $3.00 The founder of a new missionary society, the Standard of Sion Missionary Foundation (Frederick, South Dakota), tells of the spiritual need of the South American "heathen" and calls for 1000 new evangelistic missionaries. She also expounds upon the necessity for "entire sanctification" in the individual Christian and the Church.

54. Nida, Eugene A.
Message and Mission; the Communication of the Christian Faith. New York: Harper, 1960. 253 p. $5.00 How the Christian faith may be communicated across barriers of language and culture; a psychological, anthropological, and theological study of unique value for the scholar and the practical missionary. It should become a standard book in its field. The author is a Secretary of the American Bible Society.

55. Paulson, Av Berthil.
Från dörr till dörr. Stockholm: Missionsförbundets Förlag, 1959. 50 p. Sw.Kr. 3.25 "House to house visitation evangelism," by the Mission Covenant Church of Sweden.

See also: 1, 48, 56, 187, 201, 210

B. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

C. CHRISTIAN LITERATURE AND LITERACY EDUCATION

56. Karnes, Eddie, ed.
Advangelism; the Thrilling Story of Newspaper Evangelism. West Hartford, Conn.: World Harvesters, 1960. 51 p. An account of the program of evangelism in Japan through paid newspapers advertisements and some remarkable results.

57. Kreider, Roy.
Judaism Meets Christ; Guiding Principles for the Christian-Jewish Encounter. Scottdale, Pa.: Herald Press, 1960. 77 p. $1.00 An exceedingly helpful study of Jewish psychology and statement of principles that should guide and inspire friendship and Christian witness on the part of Christians in relations with Jewish people. Suggested readings.

58. Literature for the Anglican Communion; a Survey of the Need and Opportunities for the Printed Word in the World Mission of the Church. London: S.P.C.K., 1960. 96 p. 2/6 Thorough survey of the immediate literature needs of the Anglican Church in Africa, the Middle East, Asia, the South Pacific and Latin America; and a plan for the next five years, with budget of one million pounds.

59. Smith, Jeanette, comp.
Bibliography of Recommended Material for Adults with Limited Reading Ability. Memphis, Tenn.: Foundation for World Literacy, 1960. 57 p. $.50 Books for different reading levels, books for browsing, books for serious study, reading aids and dictionaries, and a useful directory of publishers. A handbook for literacy teachers.

D. AUDIO-VISUAL COMMUNICATIONS

60. Fraenkel, Peter.
Wayaleshi. London: Weidenfeld and Nicolson, 1959. 224 p. 21/- "Wayaleshi" - wireless - is a story of the CABS broadcasting station at Lusaka in Northern Rhodesia, and its impact on the people of the area, with vivid profiles of individual Africans whom the widely travelled author had come to know. A frank and revealing narrative.

E. MEDICAL MISSIONS

61. Barker, Anthony.
The Man Next To Me; an Adventure in African Medical Practice. New York: Harper, 1960. 175 p. $3.50 Medical missionary adventures in Zululand, told with deep earnestness, literary charm, and sincere compassion. A superior book.

62. Edmunds, Vincent, and Scorer, C. Gordon, eds.
On Being a Christian Medical Student. Chicago: Inter-Varsity Press, 1958. 72 p. $.75 A series of articles calculated to be of spiritual assistance to the Christian medical student, speaking to the problems most frequently encountered in this vocation. One chapter on missionary service.

63. International Convention on Missionary Medicine in Review. Oak Park, Ill.: Christian Medical Society, 1960. 158 p. n. p. Addresses, reports of panel discussions, and reports on section meetings, of the International Convention on Missionary Medicine, December 1959, at Wheaton, Illinois. Conservative in tone; both technical and theological questions were considered.

64. Lin, Tsung-Yi.
Reality and Vision. A Report of the First Asian Seminar on Mental Health and Family Life, Baguio, Philippines, 6-20 December 1958. Manila: Bureau of Printing, 1960. 85 p. $1.00 This exhaustive report of the First Asian Seminar on Mental Health and Family Life is written primarily for the benefit of the participants and their colleagues in Asia, and as such will be of interest mainly to the specialist. Several Christian scholars attended the Seminar.

F. RURAL AND AGRICULTURAL MISSIONS

G. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES

H. ADMINISTRATION AND PROMOTION OF MISSIONS: TRAINING OF MISSIONARY PERSONNEL

65. Keech, William J.
The Church School of Missions; a Manual. Philadelphia: Judson Press, 1960. 48 p. $.50 Suggestions for the organization and administration of the annual school of missions (at least six study sessions) in the local church. The author is chairman of the Commission on Missionary Education, DFM-NCCC.

66. Million, Elmer G.
Your Faith and Your Life Work. New York: Friendship Press, 1960. 80 p. $1.00 A mission study book, for use in vocational guidance and the enlistment of new missionaries. Interestingly written.

I. OTHER METHODS AND PROBLEMS

67. Weman, Henry.
African Music and the Church in Africa. Uppsala: Svenska Institutet for Missionsforskning, 1960. 296 p. (Studia Missionalia Upsaliensia, 3). Sw.Kr. 32:50 Extraordinarily fine research volume, published by the Swedish Institute of Missionary Research; translated into English by Eric J. Sharpe; well-printed with photographs and transcriptions of African music. Discusses structure and forms of African music, music in Christian congregations, experiments and proposals for wider use of African music.

V. R E F E R E N C E

A. MISSIONS

B. YEARBOOKS AND DIRECTORIES

68. Chamberlin, Waldo, et al.
A Chronology of the United Nations 1941-1958. New York: Oceana Publications, 1959. 48 p. $2.00 Chronological list of over 700 important events and U. N. decisions.

69. Methodist Overseas Missions, 1960. Gazetteer and Statistics. New York: Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, 1960. 402 p. Fourth edition of a quadrennial gazetteer, with invaluable up-to-date information regarding the far-flung missionary enterprise of the Methodist Church, U.S.A., Division of World Mission and Women's Division of Christian Service. Data on annual conferences, educational and medical institutions, social and rural work, missionary personnel, etc. Well edited and printed.

C. BIBLIOGRAPHIES AND GENERAL

70. Banks, Arthur, comp.
An Africa Book List. London: Edinburgh House Press for the Africa Committee of the Conference of British Missionary Societies, 1960. 36 p. 9d. Bibliography of over one thousand books on Africa and the countries of Africa, including some on missions and churches. Publisher, pagination, price and an indication of the importance of each book; no annotations. A helpful guide to study and reading.

71. Bibliografia Missionaria. Anno XXIII: 1959. Compiled by Giovanni Rommerskirchen and Giovanni Dindinger. Rome: Pontificia Universita di Propaganda Fide, 1960. 114 p. 23rd volume of the standard Roman Catholic missionary bibliography, with 1211 titles and annotations (in Italian) of 47 books.

72. Books on Southeast Asia; a Select Bibliography. Revised edition with supplements covering the period June 1956 to April 1960. New York: American Institute of Pacific Relations, 1960. 69 p. $.75 About 1100 items - books about eight countries and selected articles from IPR periodicals. Chiefly descriptive, political, educational, social problems; little material on religions and missions.

73. Kelley, Douglas C.
Africa in Paperbacks; 199 Paperbound Books on Africa South of the Sahara in Print, May, 1960. East Lansing, Mich.: Michigan State University, published for World Affairs Continuing Education, 1960. 37 p. $.20 These paperbacks cover a wide range: Geography, anthropology, economics, government and welfare, race relations, religion. Brief annotations are given.

74. Vriens, Livinus, O.F.M. Cap., comp.
Critical Bibliography of Missiology. Nijmegen, Holland: Bestelcentrale der V. S. K. B., 1960. 118 p. (Bibliographia ad Usum Seminariorum vol. E 2) $3.25 Carefully selected and annotated bibliography of Roman Catholic books on missions, in various languages, - general works, mission theory and law, history, methodolog and auxiliary studies. An indispensable library reference tool. English edition, translated from the Dutch.

VI. A R E A S A N D C O U N T R I E S: (1) G E N E R A L; (2) M I S S I O N S, C H U R C H E S

A. NORTH AMERICA

75. Armitage, Merle.
Pagans, Conquistadores, Heroes, and Martyrs. Santa Fe, N. M.: Manzanita Press, 1960. 99 p. $2.75 The impact of Catholic missionaries from Spain upon the American Southwest, exalting their exploits and contributions to the New World.

76. [Elfers, Robert A., et al.]
Impact; the Exploration of an Idea. New York: Friendship Press, 1960. 125 p. Paper $1.50 A striking story, told in vivid language and pictures, of the missionary frontier in North America during the past three centuries, and as it looks on the rapidly changing national stage today.

77. Judd, Gerrit Parmele, IV.
Dr. Judd, Hawaii's Friend; a Biography of Gerrit Parmele Judd (1803-1873) Honolulu: University of Hawaii Press, 1960. 300 p. $7.00 The dramatic career of Gerritt Parmele Judd, M.D., who served as a missionary-physician in the Hawaiian Islands 1828-1842, as official in the Hawaiian Government 1842-1853, and then as a planter and industrialist. Biography by his great-grandson, based on exhaustive research.

B. THE CARIBBEAN ISLANDS AND THE GUIANAS

78. Evans, Clifford, and Meggers, Betty J.
Archeological Investigations in British Guiana. Washington: U. S. Government Printing Office, 1960. 418 p. + 68 plates. (Smithsonian Institution, Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 177) n. p. Reconstruction from archival research of pre-history in a small portion of northeastern South America. Rich in detail.

C. LATIN AMERICA

79. Benham, F., and Holley, H. A.
A Short Introduction to the Economy of Latin America. London and New York: Oxford University Press, 1960. 167 p. 18/- An excellent summary of economic data on Latin America, and a study of recent economic trends in seven selected countries. Statistical appendix and maps. Highly recommended.

80. Christian Responsibility in Latin America's Emerging Industrial Society; the Wider Responsibilities of the Evangelical Churches in Latin America. Study Conference of the Committee on Cooperation in Latin America, Buck Hill Falls, Pa., November 12-14, 1959. (Pamphlet) New York: The Committee on Cooperation in Latin America of the Division of Foreign Missions of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. 20 p. $.25 A paper by Dr. Henry F. Jones on population growth, industrialization, labor organization, and the Christian opportunity, in Latin America.

81. Griffen, William B.
Notes on Seri Indian Culture, Sonora, Mexico. Gainesville, Fla.: University of Florida Press, 1959. 54 p. (Latin American Monograph Series 10) n. p. Case study of a little-known tiny tribe of Mexican Indians, the Seri, with emphasis on their social organization. Limited field research, tentative conclusions.

82. The Latin American Evangelical Church in Inter-church Relationships; the Wider Responsibilities of the Evangelical Churches in Latin America. Study Conference of the Committee on Cooperation in Latin America, Buck Hill Falls, Pa., November 12-14, 1959. New York: The Committee on Cooperation in Latin America of the Division of Foreign Missions of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. 20 p. $.25 With the exception of a few instances the entire Protestant Church enterprise in Latin America has been undertaken along denominational lines, and the "younger churches" reflect this situation. The need is for more ecumenical thinking and effort.

83. Pendle, George
The Land and People of Chile. New York: Macmillan, 1960. 96 p. (The Lands and Peoples Series). $1.75 A clear, interesting description of South America' "ribbon of a country," and its three distinct regions, written in easy, popular style. Illustrated.

84. Presbiterianism no Brasil / Presbyterianism in Brazil, 1859-1959. São Paulo, Brasil: Casa Editôra Presbiteriana, 1959. 157 p. n. p. Centenary volume of the large and growing Presbyterian Church in Brazil; the continuing "Reformation" in that giant country. About 350 well-selected photographs depicting the life and work of the Church, with Portuguese and English captions.

85. Törnberg, Allan.
Från Amazonas till La Plata; med svenska pingstmissionärer i Sydamerika. Stockholm: Förlaget Filadelfia, 1956. 135 p. Da.Kr. 21.70 "From the Amazon to the River Plate; with Swedish Pentecostal Missions in South America." The country and the people; Pentecostal movements.

D. EUROPE

86. Bolton, A. R. C.
Soviet Middle East Studies: an Analysis and Bibliography. Part II: Arabs and the Arab World. Part III: The Arabian Peninsula. Part IV: Egypt. Part V: Iraq. Part VII: The Sudan. Part VIII: Syria and Lebanon. (Chatham House Memoranda.) Oxford and New York: Oxford University Press, 1959. Part II: 44 p., 5/-; Part III: 17 p., 3/-; Part IV: 29 p., 4/-; Part V: 18 p., 3/6; Part VII: 23 p., 3/6; Part VIII: 17 p., 3/-. (Part I: Introduction and General Indexes. 36 p. 4/-. Part VI: Palestine and Jordan. 19 p. 3/6)

87. Conquest, Robert.
Common Sense About Russia. London: Victor Gollancz, 1960. 175 p. 12/6 Extremely readable and evidently authoritative "Inside Russia" story for general readers - political history, culture and literature, officialdom and labor force, mentality of the people, etc., and a closing chapter on "Prospects." The author is a British foreign service expert.

88. The Evangelical Church in Berlin and the Soviet Zone of Germany. Tr. by Patrick Lynch. Berlin: Eckart Verlag, 1959. 51 p. n. p. The Soviet Zone of Eastern Germany is the cradle of the Protestant Reformation. This is a collection of speeches, papers, letters, etc. representing the Church's struggle today against accomodation to the Communist regime. An important source book.

89. Fitzsimmons, Thomas, et al.
USSR - Its People, Its Society, Its Culture. New Haven: HRAF Press, 1960. 590 p. (Survey of World Cultures Series) $8.50 Seventh in the World Survey series by the staff of the Human Relations Area Files. An encyclopedic and interpretive analysis of the U.S.S.R. today, containing much useful information and an extensive bibliography.

90. Littell, Franklin Hamlin.
The German Phoenix: Men and Movements in the Church in Germany. New York: Doubleday, 1960. 226 p. $3.95 A dramatic and moving story of resistance movements to Nazism and Communism within the Church in Germany, upon the background of the nation's earlier history. The scholarly author goes on to describe the new experiments in lay witness and service and their significance for the American Church and ecumenical Christianity.

91. Mayes, Stanley.
Cyprus and Makarios. London: Putnam, 1960. 260 p. 30/- A critical history of modern Cyprus and especially of the enigmatic, forceful career of Archbishop Makarios, ending on a note of extreme pessimism.

92. Moseley, Philip E.
The Kremlin and World Politics; Studies in Soviet Policy and Action. New York: Vintage Books, 1960. 557 p. (Vintage Russian Library) $1.65 A collection of extracts from books and printed articles covering the years 1941 to 1959, showing the development of Soviet foreign policy. The writers are all specialists in political science and international relations. The editor is Director of Studies for the Council on Foreign Relations.

E. AFRICA (SOUTH OF THE SAHARA)

93. Allighan, Garry.
Curtain-up on South Africa. London: Boardman, 1960. 276 p. 21/- A British journalist with a questioning mind and pungent style portrays the drama in the Union of South Africa today and the various dramatis personae. He praises the outstanding achievements in construction and sees the "problem of color" as primarily a problem of economics.

94. Bourret, F. M.
Ghana; the Road to Independence, 1919-1957. Stanford, Calif.: Stanford University Press, 1960. 246 p. $5.75 New edition of book formerly published under title, The Gold Coast. Serious, full documented history of the Gold Coast as it moved toward independent nationhood, and survey of its political, economic, and social progress, with particular attention to Nkrumah's rise to power. Many favorable references to Christian missions.

95. Braun, Richard and Gertrude.
Letters from Ghana. Philadelphia, Christian Education Press, 1959. 154 p. $2.00 This book is a collection of letters written by two medical missionaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church to their parents from their assignment in the new Ghana. The letters cover a period from March 1957 to March 1958. The literary skill of the two devoted workers produces an account of missionary life that is intimate, vivid, and real. Ten pages of photographs.

96. Bryan, M. A., comp.
The Bantu Languages of Africa. London and New York: International African Institute, by the Oxford University Press, 1959. 170 p. $6.00 Fourth and last part of the general survey of African languages prepared and published by International African Institute - 83 groups of several hundred dialects, with brief information about each. Very useful reference work for students of linguistics.

97. Collis, Robert.
A Doctor's Nigeria. London: Secker & Warburg, 1960. 264 p. 25/- Robert Collis is a versatile British physician who went to the University College of Ibadan, Nigeria, to start a department of pediatrics. He also traveled over Nigeria, and met the country's leading figures. His book is not only interesting but also important because of Nigeria's new independence.

98. Crazzolara, J. P.
A Study of the Logbara (Ma'di) Language; Grammar and Vocabulary. London: Oxford University Press, 1960. 373 p. 42/-; New York $6.75 The Logbara, quarter of a million people, live on the Nile-Congo watershed in central Africa. Grammar and vocabulary of their language by a Roman Catholic missionary.

99. Cunnison, Ian.
The Luapula Peoples of Northern Rhodesia; Custom and History in Tribal Politics. Manchester: The Rhodes-Livingstone Institute, Northern Rhodesia by Manchester University Press, 1959. 258 p. 35/- Sociological and anthropological study of Luapula people of northeastern Rhodesia, primarily fishermen, who retain their early tribal designations, traditions, and customs in a fairly stable society. Material collected 1948-1951, regarding clan and village organization, land ownership, political allegiances, etc. Several references to Christian missions, and to Jehovah's Witnesses.

100. De Kiewiet, C. W.
Can Africa Come of Age? Johannesburg: South African Institute of Race Relations, 1960. 19 p. (The Sixteenth Hoernlé Memorial Lecture) 3/6 The answer is "Yes - in time." The author is hopeful for the long future.

101. Elkan, Walter.
Migrants and Proletarians; Urban Labour in the Economic Development of Uganda. London: Oxford University Press, on behalf of East African Institute of Social Research, 1960. 149 p. $3.40 In Uganda a pattern of perpetual flow between town and country has emerged; no urban working class is yet apparent. A sociological study of labor demand and supply, industrial relations, wages, labor and management problems, migrant labor, etc., in a land of dominantly African population.

102. Eminent Nigerians of the Nineteenth Century; a Series of Studies originally Broadcast by the Nigerian Broadcasting Corporation. Cambridge, Eng.: Cambridge University Press, 1960. 97 p. 8/- Stories of distinguished African personalities of the 19th century who played an important part in the building of the country that is now Nigeria. Bishop Samuel Crowther is included.

103. Fax, Elton C.
West Africa Vignettes. New York: American Society of African Culture, 1960. 63 p. $2.00 Thirty pen and ink sketches of interesting characters in Nigeria, Ghana, Liberia, and Guinea by an American Negro. Engaging portrayals.

104. Gatti, Ellen and Attilio.
The New Africa. New York: Scribner, 1960. 213 p. (World Background Book) $3.95 The authors of Here Is Africa combine a popular survey of recent political developments in each African state with lively personal impressions of "The New Africa." Highly readable; admirable photographs.

105. Gulliver, P. H.
Land Tenure and Social Change among the Nyakyusa. Kampala, Uganda: East African Institute of Social Research, 1958. 47 p. (East African Studies, 11.) 10/- An essay in applied anthropology: study of rural economy and sociology in Southwest Tanganyika, with recommendations on land policy, immigration, etc.

106. Horrell, Muriel, comp.
Days of Crisis in South Africa; Events up to 15th May 1960 (Fact Paper No. 5 - 1960). Johannesburg: South African Institute of Race Relations, 1960. 74 p. plus "Addendum," 12 p. 2/6 A "fact paper," containing important news dispatches, speeches, resolutions, etc. and reactions by other countries to the situation in South Africa.

107. Hughes, Langston.
The First Book of Africa. New York: Franklin Watts, Inc., 1960. 82 p. (The First Books) $1.95 One of the "First Book" series, designed to introduce various areas of knowledge to young readers. This capsule account of African history, cultures, and progress toward self-government is written in a flowing style, and is illustrated by magnificent photographs.

108. Hughes, Langston, ed.
An African Treasury; Articles, Essays, Stories, Poems, by Black Africans. New York: Crown Publishers, 1960. 207 p. $3.50 One feels the heartbeat of new Africa in these fifty selected writings by Africans - articles, speeches, short stories and poems. Edited by the "poet laureate of the Negro people."

109. Ingrams, Harold.
Uganda; a Crisis of Nationhood. London: Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 1960. 365 p. 1/10/- Uganda awaiting its "moment of truth," as it moves toward national independence. The anticipatory excitement of the people is captured in this colorful description of Uganda's land and society. Written in 1956.

110. Krüger, D. W., ed.
South African Parties and Policies, 1910-1960; a Select Source Book. London: Bowes & Bowes, 1960. 471 p. 45/- Very useful collection of documents - essays, speeches, debates, statements, party programs, reports, etc. covering the past half century in South Africa, dealing for the most part with the country's relation to Great Britain and the Commonwealth and, of course, the racial problem. The papers speak for themselves; there is no interpretation or comment upon them.

111. Lomax, Louis E.
The Reluctant African. New York: Harper, 1960. 117 p. $2.95 An "Inside Africa" story, written by a sensitive American Negro, seeking to interpret the mind and heart of the awakening continent, and the passionate surge toward freedom. The book reflects much anti-Americanism, and is deeply disturbing, but should be widely read.

112. Mellanby, Kenneth.
The Birth of Nigeria's University. London: Methuen, 1958. 263 p. 25/-
The exciting story of the founding (1947) and growth of University College, Ibadan, Nigeria, now one of the leading institutions of higher learning in the British Commonwealth. It owes much to the author, who was Principal for the first seven years.

113. Parker, Franklin.
African Development and Education in Southern Rhodesia. Columbus, Ohio: Ohio State University Press, 1960. 165 p. (International Education Monographs, 2. A Kappa Delta Pi Publication) $1.75 A brief but quite scholarly history of education in Southern Rhodesia, including the contribution of mission schools. Discussion of problems and plans in African education. Field study by an international fellow of Kappa Delta Pi, in 1957-8.

114. Phillips, Norman.
The Tragedy of Apartheid; a Journalist's Experiences in the South African Riots. New York: David McKay, 1960. 217 p. $4.00 The horror of the Sharpeville massacre on March 21, 1960, and of the following weeks when the South African Government put down "black nationalism" with cruel force. Eye-witness account by a British journalist who himself was jailed, and a passionate appeal to the conscience of the world.

115. The Royal Institute of International Affairs.
Nigeria; the Political and Economic Background. London: Oxford University Press, 1960. 141 p. 6/-; $1.00 This monograph surveys with dispassionate thoroughness the political and social history of Nigeria, focussing particular attention on the question of self-government, and the economic situation today. A valuable handbook on the most populous country in Africa.

116. Scobie, Alastair.
Women of Africa. London: Cassell, 1960. 184 p. 25/- A popular British writer describes the life of African women, before and after marriage, in relation to tribal organization and mores, and "on the march" to freedom. Rich in detailed and picturesque narrative. Illustrated.

117. Skeffington, Arthur.
Tanganyika in Transition. London: Fabian Commonwealth Bureau, 1960. 44 p. (Fabian Research Series 212) Political and economic progress in Tanganyika, with growing inter-tribal unity: historical background, land problems, the cooperative movement, needs for investment, etc.

118. Smith, Anthony.
Sea Never Dry. London: George Allen & Unwin, 1958. 204 p. 15/- A gossipy tale of patterns in social behavior in West Africa, thinly disguised as a story of the rise and fall of a newspaper, by the promoter of West Africa's first popular magazine, The African Sun.

119. Sundkler, Bengt.
The Christian Ministry in Africa. Uppsala: Swedish Institute of Missionary Research, 1960. 346 p. (Studia Missionalia Upsaliensia II) Sw.Kr. 35.00 Out of long study and experience Dr. Sundkler of Sweden has produced a brilliant description and interpretation of the African Church and its pastors - between the old world and the new world being born. Rich in facts and illustrated by case studies. Invaluable for all concerned with the present and future of African Christianity.

120. Sundstrom, Erland.
Afrika spranger bojorna. Stockholm: Gummessons Bokförlag, 1960. 275 p. "Africa Breaks Its Bonds." African nationalism and the Mission Covenant Church of Sweden. West Africa and the Central African Federation are included.

121. Symposium on Africa; Presented by the Barnette Miller Foundation of Wellesley College, February 16 and 17, 1960. Wellesley, Mass.: Wellesley College, 1960. 163 p. $1.50 Does "Africa" exist? Changing political status; colonial inheritance; after independence, what?; Africa's place in the world. Prominent American leaders contribute to the discussion.

122. Union of South Africa.
Our First Half-Century. Golden Jubilee of the Union of South Africa. Johannesburg: DaGama Publications, 1960. 556 p. n. p. Golden Jubilee volume of the Union of South Africa, with a wide variety of illustrated essays on government, industry, economy, and the South African way of life. The black population is practically ignored.

123. White, C. M. N.
An Outline of Luvale Social and Political Organization. Manchester: Manchester University Press; New York: Humanities Press; 1960. (Rhodes-Livingstone Papers, 30) 51 p. 8/6 Study of the village of Luvale in Northern Rhodesia which exhibits both stability and mobility; social and clan composition, kinship and family relations, place of the chieftanship.

124. Williamson, Anne O'H., ed.
Dawn in the Dark Continent; Polities, Problems, Promises. Wilberforce, Ohio: Central State College. xix, 322-868 p. (Special Issue of Journal of Human Relations, Spring and Summer, 1960, vol. 8, nos. 3 7 4) $2.50 Forty-five eminent scholars contribute to this comprehensive and enlightening symposium on human relations in the Africa situation: ancient African civilizations, tribal roots and influence, "the African personality," clash of color and creed, self-determination, Africa's economy, cultural arts, religions and education, etc. One article is on research centers and sources.

125. Wood, Susan.
Kenya: The Tensions of Progress. London: Oxford University Press, 1960. 108 p. $1.00 The wife of the president of the Capricorn Society, born in Africa, gives a clear, sympathetic interpretation of the political and social scene in Kenya. Without minimizing difficulties, she finds hope for a multiracial community. The volume is published under the auspices of the Institute of Race Relations.

126. Wrigley, C. C.
Crops and Wealth in Uganda; a Short Agrarian History. Kampala, Uganda: East African Institute of Social Research, 1959. 84 p. (East African Studies, No. 12) 16/- Agricultural history of Uganda, based upon two years of research and a study of present trends in rural economy.

See also: 11, 30, 32, 33, 60, 70, 73, 153, 237, 241, 242, 245

F. NEAR EAST, MIDDLE EAST AND NORTH AFRICA

127. Alexander, Michael.
Offbeat in Asia; an Excursion. New York: David McKay, 1960. 180 p. $4.00 A British war veteran and colorful journalist describes an 18,000 mile drive through Turkey, Iran and Afghanistan, along rarely traveled routes, with spicy comments on the lands and the peoples.

128. Beach, Peter, and Dunphy, William.
Benedictine and Moor; a Christian Adventure in Moslem Morocco. New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1960. 214 p. $4.00 An account of the founding and the ministry of the only community of Christian monks in Moslem North Africa, the Toumliline monastery, this is an inspiring story of a non-proselytizing Christian witness.

129. Bethmann, Erich W.
Yemen on the Threshold. Washington, D. C.: American Friends of the Middle East, 1960. 78 p. (Kohinur Series, 3) $2.50 Brief, informing narrative of a two months' journey through little-known Yemen (at the southern end of the Red Sea), and sympathetic study of its resources and needs.

130. Cressey, George B.
Crossroads; Land and Life in Southwest Asia. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1960. 593 p. $12.00 The famous geographer and author presents a magnificently written and beautifully printed volume on Southwest Asia, from Turkey and the United Arab Republic eastward to Pakistan. Rich in material on the life, geography, culture, politics and economy of this great region. Many excellent photographs, maps, and tables; comprehensive bibliography.

[illegible], J.D.

[illegible]. [illegible]. [illegible]. [

131. Greenwald, Norman.
The Mideast in Focus. Washington: Public Affairs Press, 1960. 86 p. $2.50 A brief introduction to the history, culture, and political situation of the various countries comprising the modern Middle East, by the Assistant Professor of Government at Northeastern University. For the general reader.

132. Hahn, Lorna.
North Africa; Nationalism to Nationhood. Washington, D. C.: Public Affairs Press, 1960. 264 p. $6.00 A brillian study of the national independence movements in Morocco, Tunisia, and Algiers, and their significance for the western world. By a frequent visitor to North Africa; introduction by Senator John F. Kennedy.

133. Hansen, Henny Harald.
Daughters of Allah; Among Moslem Women in Kurdistan. Trans. from the Danish by Reginald Spink. London: George Allen & Unwin, 1960. 191 p. 21/- A woman ethnologist from Denmark gives an inside picture of the life of Muslim women in the homes of Southern Kurdistan, a torrid region of Mesopotamia, now Iraq.

134. Kinross, Lord.
Turkey. London: Thames & Hudson, 1959. 302 p., 303 plates. 70/- 305 illustrations in photogravure, with descriptive commentaries and notes by Robert Mantran; also, maps, plans and charts. A wonderful representation of Turkey's monuments, art treasures, landscape, and people.

135. Pakenham, Thomas.
The Mountains of Rasselas; an Ethiopian Adventure. New York: Reynal & Co., 1959. 192 p. $4.00 Exciting archaeological expedition to search for the legendary Rasselas, royal prison in the mountain fastnesses of Abysinnia, resulting in the discovery also of a medieval church of fine style. Skillful reporting by a British journalist.

136. Schwarz, Walter.
The Arabs in Israel. London: Faber and Faber, 1959. 172 p. 21/- The complicated problem of 220,000 Arabs still living in Israel - their history, present condition, and future prospects. Informed, sympathetic study by a young British journalist. He sees the Israeli-Arab situation deteriorating.

137. Thayer, Philip W., ed.
Tensions in the Middle East. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins Press, 1958. 350 p. $5.50 Expert papers presented at a conference in 1957, sponsored by the School of Advanced International Studies of the Johns Hopkins University, and a report of discussions in which the unsolved Palestine problem and the Communist challenge took the center. Informative, stimulating.

138. Trevaskis, G. K. N.
Eritrea; a Colony in Transition: 1941-52. New York: Oxford University Press, 1960. 137 p. $3.40 Eritrea's culture, preserved under Italian paternalistic colonialism, was shattered by World War II and subsequent British rule. Since 1952 the country has had self-government along with Ethiopia and is making fresh progress. An interpretive history.

139. Woodsmall, Ruth Frances.
Study of the Role of Women, Their Activities and Organizations, In Lebanon, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan and Syria. London and New York: International Federation of Business and Professional Women, 1956. 95 p. n. p. An interesting study, completed in 1954, showing the remarkable progress of women in the Moslem East, in the fields of education, social work, health, business and industry, women's organizations, etc. Miss Woodsmall is a world famous YWCA leader.

140. Woodsmall, Ruth Frances.
Women and the New East. Washington, D.C.: The Middle East Institute, 1960. 436 p. $5.50 A comprehensive and scholarly study of the contemporary role of women in the Moslem East and India, by a life-long student of women in the Orient and former General Secretary of the World's Y.W.C.A. Excellent index, appendices, and statistical charts.

See also: 208

G. CENTRAL ASIA

141. Bertrand, Gabrielle.
Hemlighetsfullt Kvinnorike. Stockholm: Gummessons Bokförlag, 1956. 262 p. n. p. Little known countries of Asia where women rule. Account of a research expedition to primitive tribes of Assam, in the foothills of the Himalayas, where old customs are preserved.

142. Concerning the Question of Tibet. Peking: Foreign Language Press, 1959. 275 p. $1.25 Collection of documents, speeches, news dispatches, commentaries and background materials covering the Tibetan question from the Chinese Communist viewpoint. The Tibetan rebellion, as here explained, was engineered by a tiny reactionary clique in collusion with outside imperialists.

H. SOUTHERN ASIA

143. The Alwaye Consultation, October 1959.
Church, Society and State in Kerala. Bangalore: The Christian Institute for the Study of Religion and Society, 1960. 86 p. n. p. Sequel to Communist Rule in Kerala and Christian Responsibility (1956); papers and discussion in a second Christian consultation, in which over fifty Indian churchmen took part. Provides illuminating insight into Indian thinking and attitudes on the critical challenge of Communism in the state of Kerala.

144. Barber, Noel.
The Flight of the Dalai Lama. London: Hodder & Stoughton, 1960. 160 p. 16/- The history of Tibet and Tibetan religion sketched as background for the story of the Dalai Lama whose resistance finally stiffened against the Communist conquest. On-the-scene reporting of the dramatic revolt and flight to India, by a daring British journalist. Chronology of events is added.

145. Biardeau, Madeleine.
India. London: Vista Books; New York: Viking Press, 1960. 190 p. $1.25 A Frenchwoman gives a frankly realistic yet sensitive and sympathetic picture of India and her people today. She believes that modernization should not be pushed so fast that India loses her distinctive culture.

146. Caldwell, John C.
South Asia Travel Guide. New York: John Day Co., 1960. 252 p. $4.50 A practical, helpful guide to travelers in Indonesia, Burma, Ceylon, Pakistan, India and Nepal. The author stresses the importance of good manners and of understanding the peoples who are visited.

147. Companion to the Buddhist Commission Report; a Commentary on the Report. Colombo: Catholic Union of Ceylon, 1957. 176 plus xv p. Rs. 1.50 The Buddhist Commission (Committee) Report (sometimes called "The Buddhist Betrayal" was published in Ceylon in 1956. This is a Roman Catholic reply to criticisms of Christian missions and Christian education in the Report.

148. Dain, A. J., and Norrish, A. E., comp.
This Present Hour; Challenge from the United Conference. London: Bible and Medical Missionary Fellowship, 1959. 46 p. (Challenge Series No. 3 - Second edition) 1/- A missionary appeal reviewing the needs, opportunities, and objectives of the work of the Bible and Medical Missionary Fellowship in India, Pakistan, and Nepal, by the members of the 1958 United Conference.

149. Devanandan, P. D., and Thomas, M. M., eds.
The Changing Pattern of Family in India. Bangalore: The Christian Institute for the Study of Religion and Society, 1960. 166 p. (Social Concerns Series No. 8) Ten papers on practical problems of family life in India today and the Christian attitude to them, by a group of Indian and western social workers who have collaborated closely in their study and writing. Another fine book from the Christian Institute at Bangalore.

150. Elliott, J. H.
Guide to Nepal. Calcutta: W. Newman, 1959. 130 p. Rs. 6/- Compact summary of information about the country, people, history, customs, language, religion, and sight-seeing centers. Pictures and maps.

151. Estborn, S.
Our Village Christians; a Study of the Life and Faith of Village Christians in Tamilnad. Madras: Christian Literature Society, 1959. 67 p. (Studies in the Indian Church and Theology, No. 3) Rs. 1.90 A study undertaken by the Gurukul Research Institute, to find out to what extent Hindu and Christian elements are mixed in the thinking, customs, and practices of village Christians. Discouraging and hopeful elements in the situation are reported.

152. Fuchs, Stephen.
The Gond and Bhumia of Eastern Mandla. London: Asia Publishing House, 1960. 584 p. 71/6 (Taplinger, New York, $9.00) The whole village culture and religious life of the Bhuma and Gond tribes of central India, painstakingly described by a trained Roman Catholic anthropologist. Main research done in 1945, completed in 1947. The last chapter: "Results of Contacts with Modern Civilization."

153. Goldthorpe, J. E., and Wilson, F. B.
Tribal Maps of East Africa and Zanzibar. Kampala, Uganda: East African Institute of Social Research; London: Kegan Paul, Trench and Trubner, 1960. 14 p., 8 maps. (East African Studies, No. 13) 7/6 Maps showing the African population distribution and location of important tribes of Uganda, Kenya and Tanganyika. Explanatory text. (Should be listed under Sub-Sahara Africa.)

154. Jain, Girilal.
India Meets China in Nepal. Bombay: Asia Publishing House, 1959. 177 p. Rs. 12.00 The author, an Indian publicist, has been disillusioned regarding Chinese Communist policies. In this book he carefully considers Indo-Nepalese and Sino-Nepalese relations, and significant trends. "Nepal has been drawn into the vortex of the cold war."

155. Koop, John Clement.
The Eurasian Population in Burma. New Haven, Conn.: Yale University, Southeast Asia Studies, 1960. 66 p. (Cultural Report Series No. 6) n. p. Reprinted demographic surveys of the Eurasian population of about 8,000 in Burma, from 1891 to 1949, with statistical tables, analyses and comparisons.

156. Lehmann, Edgar, comp.
Historisch-Geographisches Kartenwerk, No. 1: Indien. Leipzig: Verlag Enzyklopadie, 1958. DM 55 A fine set of 90 maps, showing many aspects of population languages, culture, economics, education, and religion in the new nation of India.

157. Power, Paul F.
Gandhi on World Affairs. Washington: Public Affairs Press, 1960. 128 p. $3.2 A discerning interpretation of Gandhi's ideas about international relations - war, peace, and foreign policy, especially East-West relations and India's role in world affairs. Based in wide reading: emphasizes the abiding values of the Mahatma's philosophy.

158. Sharma, Chandradhar.
A Critical Survey of Indian Philosophy. London: Rider & Company, 1960. 415 p. 30/- A comprehensive and critical analysis of the various systems of Indian philosophy, on the basis of the original texts, by the Reader in Philosophy at Banaras Hindu University. The abundance of technical terms limits this study to the serious student. Extensive bibliography.

159. Stacey, Vivienne.
Pakistan: Land of Challenge. London: Bible and Medical Missionary Fellowship, n.d. 48 p. (Challenge Series No. 2) 1/- A brief report of the opportunitie for Christian missions in Sindh and the Punjab, and the place of the Bible and Medical Missionary Fellowship in meeting these needs.

160. Survey Report of the Church in West Pakistan; a Study of the Economic, Educational and Religious Condition of the Church, 1955-1959. Lahore: West Pakistan Christian Council, 1960. 53 p. Study started in 1954 by the Lahore Council of the United Church in Pakistan, with investigation of selected villages and urban areas - number of church members, their education, economic conditions, church life, etc. Statistical tables. The conclusion as to spiritual conditions and self-support are somewhat discouraging, but the writers are hopeful of revival.

161. Wriggins, W. Howard.
Ceylon: Dilemmas of a New Nation. Princeton, N. J.: Princeton University Press, 1960. 505 p. $10.00 The most scholarly and comprehensive interpretative survey yet made of Ceylonese history, culture, religion, politics, and economic problems. Indispensable to the understanding of modern Ceylon. Christian missions are mentioned in a critical way. The author, from the Library of Congress, spent two years of research in Ceylon.

I. SOUTH EAST ASIA

162. Djamour, Judith.
Malay Kinship and Marriage in Singapore. London: University of London, The Athlone Press; New York: Humanities Press, 1959. 151 p. $5.00 The Malays make up 15 per cent of Singapore's population. This book analyzes their societ kinship and family life, marriage and divorce customs and the place of children in the family system. "Singapore Malays attach much importance to human happiness." (London School of Economics, Monographs on Social Anthropology, No.2)

163. Gouldsbury, Pamela.
Jungle Nurse. London: Jarrolds, 1960. 205 p. 21/- The wife of a superintendent of police in Malaya operates a clinic for refugees from the Communist-infiltrated jungles. A delightfully written story, illustrated with the authos' own photographs.

164. Kingshill, Konrad.
Kudaeng - the Red Tomb; a Village Study in Northern Thailand. Chiangmai, Thailand: Prince Royal's College, 1960. 310 p., illus. $5.00 Comprehensive sociological and ethnological study of a village community in northern Thailand (1953-1954), covering economic life, family relations, education, government, religion, and acculturation. Based on first-hand observation. Glossary and index. Interesting material for anthropologists.

165. LeBar, Frank M., and Suddard, Adrienne, eds.
Laos: Its People, Its Society, Its Culture. New Haven: HRAF Press, 1960. 294 p. (Survey of World Cultures) $6.50 This eighth publication in the Survey of World Cultures series by the staff and associates of the Human Relations Area Files contains an exhaustive and well-written treatment of the Kingdom of Laos. Tables, bibliography, and index.

166. Lowe, John.
The Malayan Experiment. London: Fabian International and Commonwealth Bureau, 1960. 41 p. (Research Series 213) 4/- Problems and tensions in the new Federation of Malaya (established 1957), due largely to the three different racial groups - Malay, Chinese, and Indian. A chapter also on politics in Singapore.

167. Seidenfaden, Erik.
The Thai Peoples. Book I: The Origins and Habitats of the Thai Peoples with a Sketch of Their Material and Spiritual Culture. Bangkok: The Siam Society, 1958. 177 p. 18/6 The contents of this study by a veteran of forty years' service in Thailand are well outlined in the title. Most of the work was done in the late forties, and therefore the book is out of date in some respects. Bibliography, excellent photographs.

168. Stafford, Ann.
Saigon Journey. New York: Taplinger, 1960. 188 p. $3.50 The unusual journey of a Roman Catholic woman to twelve countries of Southeast Asia, and her conversations with representative eastern women, movingly narrated. The author pays high tribute to Catholic missionaries.

169. Wertheim, W. F., et al., eds.
The Indonesian Town; Studies in Urban Sociology. The Hague and Bandung: W. van Hoeve, 1958. 379 p. (Selected Studies on Indonesia, vol. 4) Dfl. 17.50 Four major Dutch studies on urban conditions in Indonesia, translated into English: town development in the Indies, coolies in Batavia, Bandung, and Kuta Gede. Mass of detail.

170. Vlekke, Bernard H. M.
Nusantara; a History of Indonesia. Chicago: Quadrangle Books; The Hague and Bandung: W. van Hoeve, 1960. 479 p. $10.00 A newly revised, definitive history of Indonesia by the professor of International Relations at the University of Leyden. Highly readable; excellent notes, index, and chronological epitome.

See also: 72, 215

J. EAST ASIA

171. Baker, Elsie M.
Broken Patterns. London: Highway Press, 1960. 90 p. 5/- A former Anglican missionary to Japan returns there after an absence of 17 years. She introduces the reader to friends who are weaving new lives out of the broken patterns of war and post-war years.

172. Cassola, Carlo.
Viaggio in Cina. Milano: Feltrinelli, 1956. 115 p. Lire 400 The author, an Italian journalist, visited Communist China in 1955 as a member of a cultural delegation.

173. Davidson, Martha, comp.
A List of Published Translations from Chinese into English, French, and German. Part I: Literature, Exclusive of Poetry. Ann Arbor, Mich.: J. W. Edwards, 1952. 179 p. $2.50 Part II: Poetry. New Haven, Conn.: Far Eastern Publications, Yale University, 1957. 462 p. $5.00
Part I. Nearly 1500 items, general books, novels, folk tales, drama, that have been translated from Chinese into western languages. An imposing reference list. Translations vary greatly in quality. Part II. Over 5000 entries: translations of Chinese poetry, literary essays, letters, and miscellaneous pieces from the pre-Han period to the Sung Dynasty. The reference list indicates name of translator, titles, essays, etc., and the source.

174. Davidson-Houston, J. V.
Russia and China; from the Huns to Mao Tse-tung. London: Robert Hale, 1960. 192 p. 21/- An interesting and well-written history of the relations between Russia and China since the days of the Tartars, concluding with a survey of the problems confronting these two world powers in their future relationships.

175. Higgins, Trumbull.
Korea and the Fall of MacArthur; a Précis in Limited War. New York: Oxford University Press, 1960. 229 p. $5.00 A critical history of the Korean War; American successes and mistakes; MacArthur's controversial role. An analysis in perspective by a brillian military writer, author of Winston Churchill and the Second Front. Well-documented.

176. Ho Kan-Chih.
A History of the Modern Chinese Revolution. Peking: Foreign Languages Press, 1960. 628 p. (China Knowledge Series) $3.50 A history of modern China from 1919 to 1956, from the viewpoint of the Communist Party. Partisan interpretation, but good English style. The U.S.A. is described as an aggressor nation during the past century and a half. Published in Peking.

177. Hou, Wai-lu.
A Short History of Chinese Philosophy. Peking: Foreign Languages Press, 1959. 177 p. (China Knowledge Series) $1.35 Interesting outline story of Chinese philosophies, ancient and modern, from the viewpoint of Marxist ideology and class struggle; extremely critical of all religion. The book ends with fulsome praise of Mao Tse-tung's political philosophy.

178. Japan Travel Bureau.
Rural Life in Japan. Tokyo: Japan Travel Bureau, 1960. 147 p. $2.50
Japan's beautiful and unchanging rural scenery and the life of the village people, seen in 132 fine photographs with English text.

179. Japan's Population Miracle; an Asian Solution to Asia's Greatest Problem. Washington, D. C.: Population Reference Bureau, 1959. 117-136 p. (Population Bulletin, Vol. XV, Number 7, November 1959.) $.50 The rapid decline of Japan's birth rate since World War II, by artificial means, may solve the nation's immediate problems, but does not necessarily point the way for all Asia.

180. Jennes, Joseph, C.I.C.M.
A History of the Catholic Church in Japan; from its Beginnings to the Early Meiji Period. Tokyo: Committee of the Apostolate, 1959. 272 p. (Missionary Bulletin Series, 8). $3.00 A short historical survey, from existing source materials, of Roman Catholicism in Japan - the Christian century, 1549-1629; the centuries of seclusion and prohibition, and restoration of the Church, 1639-1873. Lectures to new missionaries; no original research.

181. Koh, Taiwon
The Bitter Fruit of Kom-Pawi. Philadelphia: John C. Winston, 1959. 148 p. $3.50 Kom-pawi is a mountain village of northern Korea, now under Communist control. The author tells of her childhood in this community, the bitter war years and the struggle for freedom. She, her husband (a physician), and children now live in West Bound Brook, New Jersey. A strong Christian faith shines through the story.

182. Lin, Yutang, tr.
The Importance of Understanding. New York: World Publishing Co., 1960. 494 p. $6.00 Lin Yutang selects more than one hundred of his favorite passages from old Chinese prose and poetry and translates them into impeccable English which, however, lacks something of the vigor and rhythm of the original.

183. Luff, John.
The Hong Kong Story. Hong Kong: South China Morning Post, n. d. [1960?] 102 p. HK$10.00 Odds and ends of the early history of Hong Kong, from its founding in 1841 until 1900, under British rule. Christian missions limited to Gutzlaff.

184. Matsumoto, Yoshiharu Scott.
Contemporary Japan; the Individual and the Group Philadelphia: American Philosophical Society, 1960. 75 p. (Transactions of the American Philosophica Society, New Series, Vol. 50, Part 1) $2.00 Study and evaluation of the "collectivity orientations" which remain a dominant part of the social environment in Japan, in spite of growing individualism. Based upon a survey of attitudes and opinions among the Japanese people. Extensive notes and bibliography.

185. Michalson, Carl.
Japanese Contributions to Christian Theology. Philadelphia: Westminster Press, 1960. 192 p. $3.95 The professor of systematic theology at Drew University spent several months in Japanese theological schools and has subsequently worked through interpreters on Japanese theological writings. This is the first extensive attempt to interpret for the West the indigenous trends in Japanese Christian thought. Particular attention is given to the Non-Church movement.

186. Morris, I. I.
Nationalism and the Right Wing in Japan; a Study of Post-War Trends. London: Oxford University Press, 1960. 476 p. 50/-; New York $8.00 A masterly analysis and interpretation of post-war nationalism and political conservatism in Japan - just as significant as leftist radicalism. Research based on primary Japanese sources, interviews, and direct observation, over many years in Japan.

187. Peachey, Paul.
"Churchless Christianity." (in Concern, no. 7, July, 1959, p. 16-32) Evanston, Ill.: Mr. Herbert Klassen, 727 Reba Place, Evanston. 1960. $1.00 In a charitable critique of the genius and problems of the Mukyokai Shugi, the author poses significant questions for both this movement of "churchless Christianity" and the denominational missions.

188. Reischauer, Edwin O., and Fairbank, John K.
East Asia: The Great Tradition. Vol. I: A History of East Asian Civilization. Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1960. 739 p. n. p. The history of East Asian civilization - China, Central Asia, Japan and Korea, from the beginnings in pre-historical times to the first half of the 19th century, before the radical changes of the past century. A masterly survey, incorporating the best recent studies and providing interpretations valuable to both the specialist and the general student. The authors are professors at Harvard University.

189. Rosenkranz, Gerhard, ed.
Christus kommt nach Japan. Bad Salzuflen: Verlag für Missions-und Bibel-kunde, 1959. 244 p. $2.90 A symposium of thirty thoughtful articles by German church scholars and missionaries and Japanese leaders, concerning the Christian approach to the soul of Japan. Attractively printed and bound. Introduction by Dr. Gerhard Rozenkranz, Professor of Missions at Tübingen University.

190. Smythe, Hugh H., and Smythe, Mabel M.
The New Nigerian Elite. Stanford, Calif.: Stanford University Press, 1960. 196 p. $5.00 A scholarly examination of the leadership class in the new nation of Nigeria, who they are, their special characteristics, their role in society. Tables for easy reference.

191. Storry, Richard.
A History of Modern Japan. Harmondsworth: Penguin Books, 1960. 287 p. (Pelican Books, A475) $1.25 A popular yet scholarly and discriminating paper-back history of the rise, fall, and renaissance of modern Japan. The author, an Oxford graduate, has spent several years of research and writing in Japan.

192. Vining, Elizabeth Gray.
Return to Japan. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1960. 285 p. $4.50 The famous Quaker tutor to Crown Prince Akihito describes in delightful vein her recent visit of eight months to Japan, climaxed by attendance at the royal wedding. One chapter is on the International Christian University.

193. Wang Chun-Heng.
A Simple Geography of China. Peking: Foreign Languages Press, 1958. 256 p. (China Knowledge Series) $1.50 "Basic facts about the geography of China," prepared in English at Peking and reflecting the present government's point of view. For example, Mt. Jolmo Lungma (old Chinese name of Everest) is claimed on the Chinese map. Photographs, maps.

See also: 2, 7, 20, 214, 218

K. PACIFIC ISLANDS

194. Firth, Raymond.
Social Change in Tikopia; Re-Study of a Polynesian Community after a Generation London: George Allen& Unwin, 1959. 360 p. 45/- Anthropological field study of an island in the Western Pacific, a small-scale Polynesian society on the threshold of modernity, under pressures from famine and civilization. Conditions compared with 25 years ago; changes in political and social controls described. Much quantitative data. Many references to Christianity which has prevailed on the island.

195. Sharp, Andrew.
The Discovery of the Pacific Islands. Oxford: Clarendon Press, 1960. 259 p. 45/- New research into the history of western discoveries of the Pacific islands, and comparison of early records with modern data. Emphasis upon individual explorers. Bibliography and index. Source book for geography and ethnography.

L. AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

M. GENERAL

See: 41

VII. CHRISTIANITY AND NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS; OTHER IDEOLOGIES

A. RELIGIONS OF PRIMITIVE PEOPLES

196. Frazer, Sir James George. Edited, and with notes and foreword by Theodor H. Gaster.
The New Golden Bough. New York: Criterion Books, 1959. 738 p. $8.50 Revised, one-volume abridgment of Frazer's classic 12-volume anthropological study of magic and religion. Edited, with notes and foreword, by Theodor H. Gaster, specialist in comparative religion and linguistics, at the University of Rome. Well indexed.

B. THE GREAT NON-CHRISTIAN RELIGIONS

197. Ata-Ullah, Mohammad.
Citizen of Two Worlds. New York: Harper, 1960. 285 p. $5.00 Lively autobiography of a Muslim physician, mountaineer, and philosopher, a citizen of Pakistan but friend of all peoples and religious faiths. The wisdom of the East and the science of the West are united in a tolerant mind and magnanimous personality.

198. Blofeld, John.
The Wheel of Life; the Autobiography of a Western Buddhist. London: Rider & Company, 1959. 263 p. 25/- Autobiography of a professor at Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, the story of the conversion and spiritual progress of an English Buddhist. An intimate and aesthetically sensitive account of Buddhism in eastern Asia. Of special value for information concerning modern Chinese Zen Buddhism.

199. Guillaume, Alfred.
New Light on the Life of Muhammad. Manchester, England: Manchester University Press, 1960. 59 p. (Journal of Semitic Studies, Monograph No. 1) $2.25

An extensive summary of the contents of an Arabic manuscript from the fifth century of Islam, a manuscript carefully handed on from one who attended the lectures of the earliest extant authority on the life of Muhammad. The author is emeritus Professor of Arabic in the University of London.

200. Kitagawa, Joseph M.
Religions of the East. Philadelphia: Westminster Press, 1960. 319 p. $4.50 An important study of Eastern religions that breaks new ground, showing their dynamic quality as "holy communities" and ecclesiastical structures evolving in the milieu of their national societies and cultures. The Japan-born author now teaches at the University of Chicago.

201. Kraemer, Hendrik.
World Cultures and World Religions: the Coming Dialogue. (Based on the Stone Lectures delivered at Princeton Theological Seminary, 1958) London: Lutterworth Press, 1960. 386 p. 35/- The indefatigable Dutch theologian and author applies his encyclopedic mind and profound spiritual insights to the momentous encounter, or rather dialogue, that is under way between Christianity and non-Christian religions, enmeshed in social-cultural systems that are undergoing a ferment of change. Another essential book for missionary scholars and administrators.

202. Luk, Charles (Lu K'uan Yü), ed.
Ch'an and Zen Teaching. Edited, translated and explained by Lu K'uan Yü. London: Rider & Company, 1960. 255 p. 25/- Translations of representative discourses, instructions, stories, and commentaries on the Buddhist Sutras from the masters of Ch'an or Chinese Zen Buddhism, by a Chinese lay disciple. Valuable glossary of Chinese and Sanskrit names, terms and places.

203. Paret, Rudi.
Mohammed und der Koran; Geschichte und Verkündigung des arabischen Propheten. Stuttgart: W. Kohlhammer, 1957. 160 p. (Urban-Bücher, Die Wissenschaftliche Taschenbuchreihe, 32) DM. 3.60 A fresh study of the beginnings of Islam, by a German scholar.

204. Présence du Bouddhisme; sous la direction de René de Berval. Saïgon, Viêt-Nam: France-Asie, 1959. 1024 p. $18.95 One hundred and ten essays on Buddhist history, Buddhist thought, and the present situation of Buddhist communities around the world, by outstanding scholars. The articles are mostly in French but several are in English. An expensive and valuable volume.

205. Rosenkranz, Gerhard.
Der Weg des Buddha; Werden und Wesen des Buddhismus als Weltreligion. Stuttgart: Evang. Missionsverlag, 1960. 356 p. DM. 15.80 "The Way of the Buddha." A broad and incisive study of Buddhism as a world religion, done in the best tradition of German scholarship. History, various schools and forms in different countries, the meeting on the world stage with other religions including Christianity. The author is a professor and administrative officer at Tübingen University, and an authority on Christian missions. Should be translated into English.

206. Tayyebulla, M.
Islam and Non-Violence. Allahabad: Kitabistan, 1959. 103 p. Rs. 3.50
A Muslim statesman of Assam, and devotee of Gandhi, seeks to prove, with extensive quotations from the Koran and its commentators, that Islam is essentially a religion of peace, non-violence, and tolerance to other faiths.

See also: 147

C. JUDAISM

207. Lazaron, Morris S.
Bridges Not Walls; a Challenge to All Faiths. New York: Citadel Press, 1959. 191 p. $3.50 A Reform Rabbi, with a universal outlook, states his Credo after a lifetime of inter-faith activity. Relevant to problems of Protestant-Catholic-Jewish understanding in all parts of the world.

208. Mandelbaum, Bernard, ed.
Assignment in Israel. New York: The Seminary Israel Institute of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America (distributed by Harper), 1960. 243 p. $3.50 A well-written, appealing series of essays describing the physical and spiritual accomplishments of the State of Israel by experts in various fields. An expansion on the lecture series of the Seminary Israel Institute in the spring of 1959.

209. Shapiro, Harry L.
The Jewish People; a Biological History. New York: UNESCO, 1960. 84 p. (The Race Question in Modern Science Series) $.70 The genesis of the Jewish race and biological reasons for Jewish cohesion and survival over their history of 4000 years. A contribution to interracial understanding.

D. COMMUNISM

210. Hamel, Johannes.
A Christian in East Germany. New York: Association Press, 1960. 126 p. $3.00 The clear and brave Christian testimony of Pastor Hamel of East Germany, in the face of Communist pressures, based upon his own searching of the Scriptures and confidence in God's purpose for history. A striking little book that will provoke some and inspire others.

211. Hayit, Baymirza, comp.
Documents; Soviet Russia's Anti-Islam-Policy in Turkestan. Düsseldorf-Koln: Forschungsdienst Osteuropa, 1958. 48 p. DM. 4.50 Authentic documents showing that the ultimate Soviet aim is the complete destruction of Islam, through every possible method of persuasion and force.

212. Huttenbach, Henry R.
World Communism in Review. Boston: Daughters of St. Paul, 1960. 64 p. (St. Paul Editions) $.50 A Roman Catholic writer who believes that Communism is "winning the race," analyzes its ideology and strategy, and presents strong arguments against this challenge to democracy and freedom. Preface by Cardinal Cushing.

213. Labin, Suzanne.
The Unrelenting War; a Study of the Strategy and Techniques of Communist Propaganda and Infiltration. New York: American-Asian Educational Exchange, Inc., 1960. 47 p. $1.00 A brief outline for study and discussion, dealing primarily with the political and ideological struggle on the world scene.

See also: 87, 89, 92

E. GENERAL AND OTHER RELIGIONS

214. Creel, H. G.
Confucius and the Chinese Way. New York: Harper, 1960. 363 p. (Torchbook/The Cloister Library.) $4.95 This is a Torchbook reprint of Creel's Confucius: The Man and the Myth, originally published by John Day, 1949. One of the best western studies of Confucianism that has been made.

215. Geertz, Clifford.
The Religion of Java. Glencoe, Illinois: The Free Press, 1960. 392 p. $7.50 "The first comprehensive study ever made of Javanese religion as a whole." Three main religious traditions or "variants" are described: folk religion of the poor peasantry, orthodox Islam of the urban class and wealthier peasants, Hindu-Buddhist beliefs of the more educated groups. Of interest to anthropologists, sociologists, and students of world religions. Research has been sponsored by The Center for International Studies, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

216. Hermelink, Jan.
Verstehen und Bezeugen; der theologische Ertrag der "Phänomenologie der Religion" von Gerardus van der Leeuw. München: Chr. Kaiser Verlag, 1960. 170 p (Beiträge zur evangelischen Theologie, Bd. 30) DM. 10 Published doctoral thesis, by the successor to Dr. Walter Freytag in the German Evangelical Mission. Federation. Dr. Hermelink discusses the "Phenomenology of Religion" by Gerardus van der Leeuw, and the important inter-relation of understanding and witness in religious knowledge.

217. Selections from the Sacred Writings of the Sikhs. Tr. by Trilochan Singh, and others. New York: Macmillan, 1960. 288 p. (UNESCO Collection of Representative Works: Indian Series.) $5.25 An authorized translation of selected Sacred Hymns of the Sikh Scriptures. Prepared by able Sikh scholars. The moving religious poetry is taken largely from the Adi Granth, which contains also some Hindu and Islamic writing. A volume in the UNESCO Translation Collection.

218. Wright, Arthur F., ed.
The Confucian Persuasion. Stanford, Calif.: Stanford University Press, 1960. 390 p. (Stanford Studies in the Civilizations of Eastern Asia) $8.50 The pattern of continuity and change in Confucianism and the way it has affected Chinese individual life and culture through 25 centuries. Ten brilliant historical essays by American and Asian sinologists, presenting much fascinating new material. For all China bookshelves. Well-documented.

VIII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

219. Balasundaram, Palayam M.
Stimulating Greater Understanding Between India and U.S.A. (Includes: "What Do Indian Students Think About the U.S.A.?" and "What Do American Students Think About India?") Boston: Universalist Service Committee, 1960. c43p.: / 28 p. $2.50 American student images of India and Indian student images of the U.S.A. as shown in a survey of colleges in both countries. Written by an Indian educator, the work describes the sad lack of international understanding.

220. Battistini, Lawrence H.
The Rise of American Influence in Asia and the Pacific. [East Lansing, Mich.:] Michigan State University Press, 1960. 241 p. $5.00 United States expansionism moves across the Pacific in the 19th century, seen in the activities of

B. CHINESE AND OTHER FAR EASTERN

...

American citizens as well as in government policies. A documented, critical treatise.

221. Baty, Eben Neal.
Citizen Abroad; an American Finds Out about His Country's Decade of Decline While Going around the World by Freighter and Car. New York: Viking Press, 1960. 264 p. $3.50 An unusually readable travelogue, full of perceptive comments on an eight months' world tour, combined with a critical re-evaluation of the U.S.A. in perspective.

222. Brand, W.
The Struggle for a Higher Standard of Living; the Problem of the Underdeveloped Countries. Glencoe, Ill.: The Free Press; The Hague and Bandung: W. van Hoeve, 1958. 438 p. Dfl. 17.50; $7.50 English translation of a learned volume written in 1954 by a Dutch economist who served eleven years in the U.N. Secretariat. It analyzes the numerous difficulties in developing the economy of retarded countries. The author believes that a greater "transfer of accumulated science and technical knowledge of the West" is needed, and that the Soviet example should not be followed.

223. Brown, Harrison, and Real, James.
Community of Fear; a Contribution to the Discussion of the Free Society. Santa Barbara, Calif.: Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, 1960. 39 p. "Single copy free" One of a study series sponsored by the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, this monograph presents a graphic and sobering analysis of the nature and possible results of the present arms race.

224. Brown, Stuart Gerry.
Memo for Overseas Americans; the Many Meanings of American Civilization. Syracuse, N. Y.: Syracuse University Press, 1960. 47 p. n. p. A brief booklet of wise counsel to Americans going abroad, and selective annotated bibliography for overseas Americans.

225. Byrd, Robert O.
Quaker Ways in Foreign Policy. Toronto: University of Toronto Press; London: Oxford University Press, 1960. 230 p. $5.00 A systematic exposition of the Quaker's theory of international relations, from 1647 to the present, and of the Quaker effort to apply their interpretation of Christian faith and action to the complex problems of modern government and global power struggle.

226. Interprofessional Conference on Training of Personnel for Overseas Service, Cornell University, 1959.
Interprofessional Training Goals for Technical Assistance Personnel Abroad; Report. Prepared by Irwin T. Sanders. New York: Council on Social Work Education, 1959. 198 p. $3.00 Report of papers and discussion at a conference of technical aid experts and social scientists, with emphasis on social change in today's world and the role of professional personnel. Rich in information and stimulating ideas.

227. Jacobson, Harold Karan, ed.
America's Foreign Policy. New York: Random House, 1960. 756 p. $6.50 Provocative symposium of 45 essays and speeches dealing with concrete issues on American foreign policy and reflecting widely divergent points of view. Rich material for study and debate.

228. Jahoda, Marie.
Race Relations and Mental Health. New York: UNESCO, 1960. 48 p. (The Race Question in Modern Science) $.50 Psycho-genetic origins of race prejudice, and psychological factors in developing wholesome attitudes toward racial differences. A contribution to understanding.

229. Karnvapen? Stockholm: Missionsförbundets Förlag, 1959. 103 p. (Nordiska Ekumeniska Institutets Skriftserie N:R 14) Sw.Kr. 6 "Atomic weapons?" A study of their meaning for Christian ethics. By the Ecumenical Institute of Sweden. Pros and cons are presented.

230. Leslie, Charles M.
Now We Are Civilized; a Study of the World View of the Zapotec Indians of Mitla, Oaxaca. Detroit: Wayne State University Press, 1960. 108 p. $3.95 Combination of anthropological and humanistic research: sympathetic study of a changing mountain society in southern Mexico. The people of Mitla, in spite of recognized ambiguities of behavior, want to maintain the image of an open, peaceful, civilized community. Written with literary skill.

231. Mason, Philip.
Race Relations in Africa Considered against the Background of History and World Opinion. London: SCM Press, 1960. 24 p. 2/- Search for a "humane and Christian ideal," without ignoring the realities of the present situation. Mason is sensitive to the deep resentments and fears of the African and to the danger of western Christian alignment with colonialism.

232. Millis, Walter, and Murray, John Courtney, eds.
Foreign Policy and the Free Society. New York: Oceana Publications, 1958. 116 p. $2.75 An intelligent and vigorous discussion on the relation of American foreign and military policies to the goals of a free society, by eight prominent leaders of public opinion. The Soviet challenge finds varied respons 233. Myrdal, Gunnar.

Beyond the Welfare State; Economic Planning and Its International Implications. New Haven: Yale University Press, 1960. 287 p. $4.50 The famous Swedish economist and politician analyzes national economic planning in three different areas of the world - Soviet, non-Soviet wealthy, non-Soviet poor; and the relation of planning to nationalism, international relations, and the future of democracy. Based on the Storrs Lectures on Jurisprudence given by Myrdal at Yale in 1958.

234. Ruopp, Phillips, ed.
Approaches to Community Development; a Symposium Introductory to Problems and Methods of Village Welfare in Underdeveloped Areas. The Hague and Bandung: W. van Hoeve, 1953. 352 p. Dfl. 9.50 Twenty noted contributors, each with extensive and authoritative experience, make this an outstanding volume on the philosophy and techniques of rural development in less developed areas. Christian rural missions are not mentioned.

235. United Nations.
Cooperation for Economic Progress. New York: United Nations, Office of Public Information, [1959] 58 p. $.25 Plans for economic progress in Europe, the Far East, Latin America and Africa, through UN sponsored projects.

See also: 157

IX. ANTHROPOLOGY AND RELATED SUBJECTS

236. Beals, Alan R.; Hitchcock, John T.; Kennedy, Mary Jean.
Field Guide to India; With a Section on Pakistan. Washington: National Academy of Sciences - National Research Council, 1960. 61 p. (Field Guide Series Number 4) n. p. Carefully prepared information for research workers in India and Pakistan, engaged in fathering of anthropological data. Many of the guiding principles stated are applicable to other countries as well.

237. Field, M. J.
Search for Security; an Ethno-psychiatric Study of Rural Ghana. Evanston, Ill.: Northwestern University Press, 1960. 478 p. (Northwestern University African Studies, 5). $6.50 A penetrating study of mental stress and mental illness in the villages of Ghana, related to magic, spirit possession and other primitive superstitions, based upon a large number of case studies. Written by a physician and psychologist this is interesting and valuable material for anthropologists and all students of Man. A brief section criticizes motives in Christian conversion.

238. International Bibliography of Social and Cultural Anthropology. Vol. III. Paris: UNESCO, 1959. 410 p. (Documentation in the Social Sciences) $7.00 Indispensable bibliographic series for the anthropologist.

239. Kephart, Calvin.
Races of Mankind; Their Origin and Migration. New York: Philosophical Library, 1960. 566 p. $6.00 A bold attempt to reconstruct the history of human development from man's emergence in evolution to the division into racial groups (circa 75,000 B.C.), and through various divisions, migrations, invasions and dispersions to the present time. Open to criticism on detail but of absorbing interest. The author believes in the unity of man and common origin of all races.

240. Leslie, Charles, ed.
Anthropology of Folk Religion. New York: Vintage Books (Random House), 1960. 453 p. $1.65 (paper back) Excellent field studies of folk religion in Africa India, the South Pacific, Mexico and Haiti, by nine competent anthropologists. Inexpensive edition.

241. Middleton, John.
Lugbara Religion; Ritual and Authority among an East African People. London: Oxford University Press, for the International African Institute, 1960. 276 p. 38/- A technical and detailed sociological analysis of ritual and belief in the social life of the Lugbara, a people of the Nilo-Congo divide, by a Lecture in Anthropology at the University of London.

242. Miner, Horace, ed.
Social Science in Action in Sub-Saharan Africa. Special issue of Human Organization vol. 19, No. 3 (Fall 1960), p. 97-168. Ithaca: Society for Applied Anthropology, 1960. $2.00 A dozen brief papers summarizing the anthropological research that has been done in Negro Africa and describing some specialized studies.

243. Ray, Verne F., ed.
Intermediate Societies, Social Mobility, and Communication; Proceedings of the 1959 Annual Spring Meeting of the American Ethnological Society. Seattle, Wash American Ethnological Society, 1959. 74 p. $2.50 Nine technical papers on anthropological and ethnological subjects in various parts of the world.

244. Rosenstiel, Annette.
Anthropology and the Missionary. (Offprint from The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute, vol. 89, pt. 1, January-June 1959, pp. 107-115.) London: Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland. Excellent paper on the contribution that Christian missionaries have made to anthropology.

245. Ruud, Jørgen.
Taboo; a Study of Malagasy Customs and Beliefs. Oslo: Oslo University Press; London: George Allen & Unwin, 1960. 325 p. 27/6 The place of innumerable and complicated fady or taboos in the primitive religion of the Malagasy of Madagascar is vividly described. The author was a French missionary for twenty years and is also a competent ethnologist. An important addition to literature on this subject.

See also: 99, 105, 116, 123, 133, 141, 152, 164, 194, 196, 230

X. THEOLOGICAL, WORSHIP AND DEVOTIONAL

246. Hitotsuyanagi, Merrell Vories.
Poems of the East and West. Dayton, Ohio: The Omi Brotherhood, 1960. 169 p. n. p. Over one hundred poems by a great American missionary to Japan who became a Japanese citizen in 1940, founder of the well-known Omi Brotherhood. His beautiful, mystical spirit and love of humanity shine through the writings.

See also: 185

XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE MISSIONARY RESEARCH LIBRARY

July - December, 1960

Occasional Bulletin and Book Notes. Published ten to twelve times a year at the subscription rate of $2.00 for the calendar year. No additional charge for postage, domestic or foreign.

Vol. XI

No. 6. Psychological Relationships in the Communication of the Christian Faith. By Eugene A. Nida. Bibliography, pp. 10-18. 18 p. July 15, 1960. $.25

No. 7. The Bible in 1,151 Languages. By Margaret T. Hills. 13 p. September 30, 1960. $.25

No. 8. The Missionary Vocation Today. By Addison J. Eastman. What is the Role of the Missionary in a Rapidly Changing Society? By Richard B. Poetig. A Selected Reading List on the Christian Missionary. By Frank W. Price. 12 p. October 31, 1960. $.25

No. 9. North American Protestant Foreign Missions in 1960. By Frank W. Price and Clara E. Orr. 41 p. November 23, 1960. $.50

No.10. List of Theses in Foreign Missions and Related Subjects Accepted During the Academic Year 1959-1960. Compiled by Laura Person. 9 p. December 15, 1960. $.20

Book Notes. Issued monthly. Free to subscribers of the Occasional Bulletin or sent upon request. Vol. XXI, 1960.

July-August	Summer Choice
September	Latin America
October	Christendom Today
November-December	China and the Chinese - A Selection of Books Published in 1960

Selected List of Current Books and Pamphlets, January 1 - June 30, 1960. $.50

Directory of North American Protestant Foreign Missionary Agencies. 4th edition, 1960. Information about 420 agencies, and list of professors of missions in theological seminaries. Index. Price: $2.00

Bibliography of the Theology of Missions in the Twentieth Century. Over one thousand items, briefly annotated. Compiled by Gerald H. Anderson. Revised edition. December 1960. Price: $1.50

XI. PUBLICATIONS OF THE BIBLIOGRAPHY READING TABLE

for postage, duplicate or overlap.

logical Relationships in the Communication of the Christian ...
...ub. By Eugene ... Nida. Bibliography, pp. 70-75. 15 p. Only 0. $.25

...e Bible in [illegible] Languages. By Margaret T. Hazen. 14 p.

The Missionary Vocation Today. By Herbert J. Muller. Work in ...
Role of the Missionary in a Lapsing Christian Society. By Richard ...
Martin. A Selective Reading List on the Christian Missionary. By Frank W. Price. 42 p. October Pr., 1960. $0.65

Joron American Protestant Hospitals in Japan. By Frank K. Wilson
and Clara B. Orr. 71 p. November 23, 1960. $.50

List of Theses in World Mission and United Nations Relations
During the Academic Year 1959-1960. Compiled by [illegible]
December 15, 1960. $.25

Issued monthly. Free to subscribers of the Occasional Bulletin or sent upon request. Vol. XXI, 1960.

[illegible]ember	Robin Morris
December	China and the Chinese - A Selection of Books Available

North American Protestant Foreign Missionary Personnel. An enumeration about 420 agencies, and lists of professions of missions in

Survey of the Theology of Missions in the Twentieth Century. Over one
[illegible] published by Gerald H. Anderson. Nov[illegible]

GTU Library
3 2400 00645 5699